Flexible placement options
The E120 system is designed for use around the home and is able to suit a wide variety of applications. It serves up 2 x 25W of power at 6ohms suitable for a variety of passive speakers and thanks to an IP54-rating is capable of being situated in bathrooms and kitchens where humidity and splashes are frequent. What's more, a waterproof remote control is included so you're free to control your music from the bath or with wet hands.

Suitable for TVs
On top of Bluetooth 5.0 compatibility for streaming and an integrated radio system, a host of digital and analogue connections enable use with TV systems to enhance your audio for more immersive movie nights and enjoyable viewing experiences. Audio output is configurable so you can output to a subwoofer, external power supply or even a second E120 system.

Touch control display
A 3.2" display offers sharp visual feedback of song information including artist and album name. Touch controls allow you to make quick manual adjustments and you can also manually change brightness levels. An internal light sensor allows automatic changing of levels making the E120 perfect for bedrooms so you can avoid background light whilst sleeping. The alarm function makes it possible for you to set alarms every single day, including 2 one-off alarm settings.
