High Quality CD Player

High Quality CD Player

The DCD-100's delivers a wide dynamic range, brought to the outputs via precision tuned low-noise, low distortion circuitry. And it does all this not just with your favourite CDs, but also with MP3/WMA tracks stored on data CDs. However you like your music, the DCD-100 is ready to deliver. With just one handset, you can control both, the DCD-100 and best matching Network Receiver DRA-100 for seamless operation, whether it's playing your discs or dimming the display a little to match your mood. That's what we call a smart design. A perfect stereo system for your modern living room.

Perfect match with DRA-100

Featuring the same high quality styling and finish, the DCD-100 is the perfect partner for the DRA-100 Network Receiver. The compact chassis features deluxe finishes including soft aluminum matte with bright silver tone accents and glossy and matte black surfaces. Simply connect both products via a digital cable, and you will enjoy superb audio fidelity.

High Resolution D/A Conversion

High Resolution D/A Conversion

For connection to other audio components that do not have a digital input, the DCD-100 features a high quality D/A conversion block with 32-bit/192-kHz D/A converter that delivers wide dynamic range, along with extremely low noise and distortion. A true upgrade to your existing stereo system.
