History of DT 770 PRO / DT 880 PRO / DT 990 PRO:

beyerdynamic's DT 770 PRO, DT 880 PRO and DT 990 PRO headphone series has its roots in the early 1980s. Since then, millions of audio professionals from all parts of the world have become loyal users of beyerdynamic products.

The series has been designed to cater for listening in a wide variety of environments, thanks to different headphone construction:

DT 770 PRO – Closed back (studio, stage)

DT 880 PRO – Semi-open back (reference monitoring, Mastering, Mixing)

DT 990 PRO – Fully open back (critical listening)

The 32 ohms version of the DT 770 PRO is a recent addition to the series that was optimized for use with portable devices. The series also offers the DT 770 M headphones, designed especially for loud environments such as live acts.
