FLUIDS are extremely effective, of excellent quality and perfectly compatible with most major brand machines.
Made from a chemical composition using very pure demineralised water as a base, they preserve the longevity of your machine.
Our factory uses the most modern techniques available and products are continually monitored during production.
All products adhere strictly to the current international standards in force.
Our formulations are consistently updated, keeping in step with developments in international standards.
Our health & safety data sheets (HSDS) are compiled by an independent laboratory, providing you with all the necessary guarantees.
They are available upon simple request. Quality, efficiency and respect for our customers remain a prevailing concern.

Foam Fluid is especially studied to provide for significant and long-lasting results. The foam produced by this fluid is very aerated. As opposed to many other products, only 2% of this product needs to be diluted in water.
