open

type (TR-70), closed type (TR-80), and semi-open type (TR-90) are the same variations found in the newly redesigned T-RP series headphones. Veteran Fostex fans will recognize the distinctive Fostex-signature "slider bars," which are also a nod to the design cues of the long-running T-RP series. Each pair of TR series headphones comes with two sets of ear pads for customizability by the owner: a set of standard-thickness pads and a set of extra-thick ear pads.* Each pair of TR series headphones also includes two different detachable, locking
